January 2010 has been a fruitful month for The Cobra Group Companies, starting on a high note, making it a point to retain the growth rate that was produced throughout 2009, in all sectors that it has been operating in. In the very first week of January 2010, The achieved high results in various division including; Charity, Pay TV, Energy, Insurance and Telecommunications. Despite the bleak and colourless winter that seemed to cast its lethargic shadow over the The Cobra Group's resilience has continued to shine through, proving that it is going be an prove eventful year for The Cobra Group. Let's hope February takes off from where January ends for The Cobra Group PLC and then, with the onset of Spring in March, business blooms even further.

Cobra Group Plc
